

IN 1967—ONLY SIX YEARS FOLLOWING
PRESIDENT OBAMA'S BIRTH—THE U.S.
SUPREME COURT RULED AGAINST THE
BAN ON INTERRACIAL MARRIAGE IN THE
SIXTEEN STATES THAT STILL OUTLAWED IT.

HOPEFULLY WE WILL MEET THE FIRST PRESIDENT WHO IS THE PRODUCT OF A LEGALLY-MARRIED, SAME-SEX COUPLE IN OUR LIFETIME.

“When I am President of the United States, gays and lesbians will have somebody who will fight for equal rights for them, because they are our brothers and they are our sisters!”

—Barack Obama

We oppose the Defense of Marriage Act and ask you to support legal same-sex marriage.

postcardstothepresident.com

Demand Equality

enter your return address.
place stamp.
write a note.
drop in mail.
repeat. thanks.

President Barack Obama
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave
Washington, DC 20500